

GOD 101: Revival

Community Group

Acts 8:26-40 /// Week of February 26

Today's big idea: Personal and corporate revival starts with submission to God's Holy Spirit.

- Talk about some of the biggest “restarts” you have had in your life.
- Review the Community Group Guidelines together.
- Someone pray that God would help us hear from him.

Head

- Use the Bible Storytelling technique to tell the story of Philip and the Ethiopian eunuch.
- Retell the story together as a group.
- Read the story from Acts 8:26-40 in the Bible.
- What was Philip's part in this life change?
- What was the Ethiopian eunuch's part in this life change?
- What was God's part in this life change?

Heart

- Talk about a time when, like the Ethiopian eunuch, you may have encountered God in such a way that you felt compelled to take a step of faith.
- Talk about a time when, like Philip, you may have helped someone else take a step of faith.
- Do you feel like you need a revival in your life. Why or why not?

Hands

- In light of this story and this discussion, what is God challenging you to do next?
- What is keeping you from taking this step this week or even right now?
- Close in prayer for one another and for submission to God's Holy Spirit.

WeServe Month will be here in March!

What ideas do you have for a service project individually, as a family, or as a community group that you would like to lead? Contact: Naomi at 713.202.1395 or naomi@hfcog.org

Community Group Member Covenant

- I will make attendance a priority in my schedule and involvement a priority in my participation.
- I will build trust by holding in confidence those things shared in the Community Group.
- I will engage with a disciple maker—someone that will help me grow as a disciple of Jesus and teach me how to be a disciple maker as well.

COMMUNITY GROUP GUIDELINES

Confidentiality

Keeping things that are shared in the group confidential builds trust and shows value to the person.

Confidentiality can prevent gossip that only values the story; Jesus always valued the person above their story or their sin.

Don't Rescue & Don't Fix

When someone is sharing something deeply personal and/or painful there can be a tendency to try and make them feel better about themselves or the situation. Often this will cause people to stop sharing and results in their not going as deep as they might have gone. Resist the temptation to rescue people. Try to hear what people are sharing without trying to fix them. If they want your advice, they will ask for it. You may want to take time later to ask if you can offer some advice.

No Crosstalk

Be considerate of others as they are sharing. Don't have side conversations. Trust is built in the moments when everyone feels like they are being listened to and heard by the entire group. Treat others in the group as you would want to be treated.

Use Humor Responsibly

Fun is an essential part of Small Groups; however, when meeting in the Biblical Storytelling time keep sarcastic comments, jokes and laughter to a minimum to allow for an atmosphere of authenticity and vulnerability.

Give Everyone a Chance to Share

Be sensitive to the amount of time you share. Encourage everyone to participate in group discussions.

Use "I" Statements

During small group, we want to hear your personal thoughts and perspectives. Using "I" statements to answer discussion questions allows you to speak for yourself rather than generalizing by using terms such as "them", "the church", "us" or "we".

Fight for Relationship

Relationships reaches a whole new level when conflict is resolved in a healthy manner. When conflict or sin issues arise between group members, commit to fight for the relationship and discuss the struggle with the person you are in conflict with or seek wise advice.
